

Terms and Conditions – Domain Assessment Service

These Conditions govern the contractual relationship established between Namecase GmbH, with headquarters at Wilhelmstrasse 27, 53111 Bonn, Germany (also “Namecase”) and the Customer for provision of the domain assessment service (“Service”).

The Service consists of an economic assessment, of a purely indicative and estimative nature, performed on the domain name specified by the Customer, carried out based on assessment factors, as more fully defined in the domain assessment form.

To access the service, the Customer must enter all the required data in the appropriate form, in addition to making payment through the Stripe platform, in which the Customer will enter data relating to the payment. The Service will be provided only against the required payment.

The Customer acknowledges and accepts that this assessment cannot in any way be challenged and that in no even may it take action against Namecase in the event of a sale at a price lower or higher than the value indicated.

Any additional service with respect to those indicated may be provided, subject to a feasibility study, at the specific request of the Customer in accordance with the agreed terms, conditions and fees.

Our Services must not be used in an improper manner. We may suspend or discontinue the provision of our Services to the Customer if the Customer fails to comply with our terms or our regulations or if we are investigating a case of alleged misconduct.

By using our Services, the Customer does not become the owner of any intellectual property rights on the Services or the content accessed.

These terms do not entitle the Customer to use any trademarks or logos used in the Services. One may not remove, obscure, or alter any legal notices displayed on or in conjunction with the Services.

Namecase is constantly working to modify and improve the Services. We may add or remove features or characteristics and may suspend or discontinue the provision of a Service altogether.

Namecase may also discontinue providing the Services or establish new limits on access to the Services at any time.

If the Customer fails to comply with these terms, our failure to take prompt action cannot be construed as a waiver of any of our rights (for example, the right to take measures in the future).

If a specific provision proves to be inapplicable, such inapplicability shall not extend to the other provisions.

For any dispute, the specified court shall be that of Arezzo.
